

KATRINA ELIZABETH WALKER was born and raised in Greenville, South Carolina. Katrina graduated from Greenville Senior High Academy of Academic Excellence in 2005, and in May of 2009, received a Bachelors Degree: Nursing from Clemson University. In December of 2011, Katrina graduated from Gardner Webb University with a Master of Science in Nursing Administration. In 2017, Katrina earned a Master of Ministry from the Clamp Divinity School at Anderson University, and she is currently enrolled working towards a Doctor of Ministry in 21st Century Ministry.

Katrina was baptized when she was eight years old at Springfield Baptist Church, Greenville, SC. On July 26, 2015, Katrina became a licensed minister at Springfield under the pastorship of Rev. Kippie C. Brown. Today Katrina is known as a gifted speaker, teacher, and preacher with a ministry that goes far beyond the local church. She serves as an associate minister at Greater New Hope Baptist Church located in Simpsonville, SC. She also teaches Christian Education classes and workshops at the state and local levels. Katrina's ministry also has a national presence, being accepted into the 2018 Baptist Women in Ministry mentoring cohort. In addition to her personal ministry, she serves as a consultant for Pastors and congregations.

Professionally, Katrina has 15 years of experience in healthcare and is entering her eleventh year as a Registered Nurse. Currently, she works directly with customers in the healthcare benefits sector. Her past roles include working in education, nursing administration, and organizational development.

Katrina has a love for Greenville, which is evident in her service to her local community. Her most recent volunteer work includes leading and working in service projects for groups such as; Prison Fellowship, Habitat for Humanity, and Samaritan Purse. In 2016 Katrina was named Greenville Business Magazine's Best and Brightest, 35 & Under. Last year Katrina was accepted into LeadHER Greenville, where she serves on the executive committee. Katrina is a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.

Katrina is the youngest child of Obie Walker, Jr. and Bobbie Jameson. Each day Katrina continues to press toward the mark, as stated in her favorite verses Philippians 3:12-14.

I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.
